

Internet Society proposed plan to support the IETF in Latin America and the Caribbean

The Internet Society remains committed in supporting the efforts of the IETF. Below is a list of proposed activities that the Internet Society will sponsor, support, or host in support of the IETF and Open Internet Standards development.

The following chart is based on the assumption the IETF meeting in the Latin America and Caribbean region will take place in 2015. If it is, in fact, held in 2016, this same nature of activities would extend through the IETF meeting into that year.

Draft Timeline of Activities
