16 Michael E. McNeil, In Pro Se,

17 Plaintiffs,

18 vs.

19 Microsemi et Al,

20 Defendants

21 Motion to Correct Filing Error and
22 refer to DC Circuit

23 Notice of Motion and Motion to Transfer Newly Filed Appeal to DC Circuit

24 Plaintiffs improperly filed this appeal with the Ninth Circuit, it should 25 have gone to the DC Circuit because of the amount of the matter pertaining to Tax Code and IRS related matters.

1 Because no substantive work has happened yet in the matter other than 2 docketing, this is the perfect time to move the appeal to the proper venue,
3 the Court of Appeals for the DC Circuit.

4
5 Therefore to correct that filing error, Plaintiffs do move with this notice
6 of motion and motion the Clerk of the Court be ordered to transfer this 7 appeal to the DC Circuit so it may be heard and properly referred to the
